There is a vast array of information available through the Purdue University Libraries. If you do a general search, hundreds, if not thousands of titles can appear. That is where subject guides can come in handy.

This spring, the Hicks Undergraduate Library will be hosting an exhibit from the National Constitution Center, the National Endowment of the Humanities, and the American Library Association (ALA) Public Programs Office titled, Lincoln: The Constitution and the Civil War. This subject guide is designed to give you a brief list of resources to help navigate the wealth of information written about Abraham Lincoln, slavery, and the American Civil War. Included are search terms, useful databases, biographies, scholarly works, popular fiction, and media.

SEARCH TERMS:

Lincoln, Abraham
Civil War
Abolitionists
Slavery

DATABASES:

Humanities Full Text
This database contains current scholarly journal articles on the arts, classical studies, communications, history, literature, and religion. Retrospective coverage can be searched with Humanities & Social Sciences Index Retrospective: 1907-1984.

JSTOR
This database archives over 1000 journals on humanities, social sciences, and science. The archives begin from the first issue of the journal. However, their holdings stop generally 3-5 years from the present date.

ProQuest

This database covers a wide range of subject areas, including business, education, history, literature, political science, and psychology.
